A CALIFORNIA man, during the unusual circumstance of a snow that covered the ground, cut a lot of logs up into short lengths and painted a big black spot on every fresh end. The rabbits mistook the spots for holes, and hundreds of them butted out their brains or broke their necks trying to jump into them. The ingenious trapper gathered a wagon load of game every morning as long as the snow lasted. To judge from the number of democrats lying about in Nebraska with their brains butted out or their necks broken it would appear that they had been confusing painted spots and soft official places and had been trying to get in with more zeal than judgment.-Ex.

FASHIONABLE girls in Philadelphia are enthusiastic now about knitting stockings. The time they formerly spent in calling or novel reading is now devoted to manufacturing the cutest kind of dainty silk stockings of various colors and sizes, marked with charming clocks in silver and gold thread. Many of them have forgotten, for the time being, their stupid and pizturesque poodles; have almost discarded afternoon drives through the beautiful avenues of Fairmont Park, and have become experts in judging silk threads, for patience and time are required to match delicate shades in shops, and caution is necessary to get right qualities. These maidens who knit because they like it, not for hard eash, seldom sew alone, for "knitting circles" are a part of the program, and these gatherings are not surpassed as gossiping centres-at least so rumor hath it-by the most ancient of church sewing meetings.

Some one has figured out that life is like harness because it contains "traces of care, "lines" of trouble, "bits" of good fortune. "breeches" of good manners and "bridled" tongues, and every one has a "tug" to pull through a severe cold unless they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
